

ROAR AI Processing Acknowledgment and Consent

These AI Acknowledgement Terms (“AI Terms”) govern your access to and use of the [ROAR AI-Powered Brand Briefing Services] and other AI-powered Services provided by Roar Impact, LLC (“ROAR,” “Company,” “we,” “us”).

By accessing, registering for, or using the Services, you (“User,” “you”) agree to be bound by these AI Terms.

1. Use of Artificial Intelligence

We use third-party artificial intelligence (“AI”) tools to analyze and enhance the professional information you provide, including resumes, career history, personal goals, and branding content. These tools are used to generate strategic feedback and professional marketing materials tailored to you. We are not responsible for the availability, accuracy, reliability, security or performance of any third-party AI tool, service, or content.

2. Sharing with Third-Party AI Providers

To provide our services, your information may be transmitted to and processed by external AI service providers. These providers may be located in different jurisdictions and operate under their own privacy and security practices.

For more information about how we handle personal data, please review our Privacy Policy: [\[https://www.roarimpact.ai/privacy-policy\]](https://www.roarimpact.ai/privacy-policy).

3. Purpose Limitation

We process your information solely to provide the services you request and for related business purposes described in our Privacy Policy.

4. Model Training and Data Retention

We take commercially reasonable steps to configure our AI providers to limit data retention and to prevent use of your information for model training where such controls are available. However, due to the nature of third-party AI systems, we cannot guarantee that all providers will not retain, log, or process your information beyond our direct control.

5. No Sensitive Information

You agree not to submit highly sensitive personal information (such as Social Security numbers, financial account numbers, health information, or other sensitive data) through this service. You represent that any information provided does not violate applicable law or the rights of any third party.

6. Accuracy and Limitations of AI Outputs

AI-generated outputs may be incomplete, inaccurate, or biased. Outputs are provided for informational and professional development purposes only and should not be relied upon as the sole basis for career, hiring, or business decisions.

7. User Responsibility and Review

You are responsible for reviewing and validating all outputs before using them in any professional or business context. We do not guarantee any specific outcome, result, or performance from any output.

8. Data Retention and Deletion

We retain personal information only as long as reasonably necessary to provide the service and as required for legitimate business or legal purposes, as further described in our Privacy Policy. You may request access to or deletion of your data, subject to applicable law and technical limitations. You are responsible for maintaining copies of any information submitted. We shall not be responsible for the loss, deletion, corruption, or failure to store any data. You may request access to or deletion of your data by contacting us at [\[Info@roarimpact.ai\]](mailto:Info@roarimpact.ai).

You acknowledge that, due to the use of third-party AI providers, we may not be able to fully delete or control information that has already been processed by such providers.

9. Acknowledgment and Consent

By starting the brand brief process, you:

- acknowledge that your information will be processed using third-party AI tools;
- understand the associated privacy, security, and accuracy risks;
- consent to this processing as described in this notice and our Privacy Policy; and
- acknowledge that we shall not be liable for any loss, damage, or disruption arising from the failure, unavailability, or actions of any third-party AI tool, including without limitation outages, data loss, or service interruptions caused by such third-party AI tools.
